

European Society of Anaesthesiology: Young Teaching Recognition Award of NASC

The purpose of this Award is to discover an individual with outstanding teaching skills.

The award winner will be required to give a total of 3 lectures. One lecture must be presented at the annual Euroanaesthesia congress. The other two lectures will be given on ESA satellite meetings of national societies. The award winner will receive a travel reimbursement for every lecture according to ESA policy. The rest of the travel expenses will be paid by the host departments or congress organisers, if necessary.

Applicants should not be older than 40 years of age. To qualify, applicants must be member of the European Society of Anaesthesiology (ESA). Applicants must submit their Curriculum Vitae as well as an outline of their lecture. Each application must be accompanied by a letter from the applicant's Chairman, and a letter of the president of the national society outlining the teaching qualifications of the applicant.

One award is given for applicants from Eastern European countries and one award is given for applicants from Western European countries.

Please submit applications to the ESA Secretariat: esa@euroanaesthesia.org

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION: December 31, 2009
